

Everyday English Conversation Practice – PDF Worksheet

The focus of this article is to help you practice English for daily use. You'll learn simple sentences and basic phrases about food, meals and asking for directions. You'll also know how to talk about the weather, shopping and money vocabulary. All under our vocabulary builder.

- Key vocabulary & phrases for beginners
 - Sample dialogue for everyday English practice
 - Practice exercises
 - Quick tips for confidence
-

Lesson 1: Talking About Food and Meals

Key Vocabulary & Phrases

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
Breakfast	Morning meal	"I eat breakfast at 7:00 a.m."
Lunch	Midday meal	"We have lunch at school."
Dinner / Supper	Evening meal	"My family eats dinner together."
Snack	Small food between meals	"I like fruit as a snack."
Rice	Common grain food	"We eat rice with chicken."
Bread	Baked food made from flour	"I eat bread with butter."
Vegetables	Healthy plant foods	"I like carrots and spinach."
Fruit	Sweet plant foods	"Mango is my favorite fruit."

Sample Dialogue Based on Daily English speaking practice

A: What do you eat for breakfast?

B: I usually eat bread and eggs.

A: Do you like vegetables?

B: Yes, I like tomatoes and cabbage.

A: What is your favorite food?

B: My favorite food is grilled chicken with rice.

Daily English speaking practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with your own answers:

- For breakfast, I eat _____.
- I usually have lunch at _____.
- My favorite food is _____.
- I drink _____ with my meals.
- I like to snack on _____.

Say your answers aloud or write them in a notebook to practice!

Quick Tips to Practice Everyday English Conversation

- Use “I eat / I drink” for habits and routines: “I eat rice every day.”
- Use “like / don’t like” to express preferences: “I like bananas.” / “I don’t like spicy food.”
- Practice with real examples from your daily meals.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1: How do I say my morning meal in English?

A1: You can say “I eat breakfast at 7 a.m.”

Q2: What phrase should I use for food between meals?

A2: Use “snack.” For example: “I like fruit as a snack.”

Q3: How do I talk about my favorite food?

A3: Say “My favorite food is ____.” For example: “My favorite food is grilled chicken with rice.”

How to Talk About Food and Meals

1. Start with the meal: Say - "I eat breakfast at 7 a.m. " or "We have lunch at school."
2. Add food vocabulary: "I like rice and vegetables."
3. Share preferences: "My favorite food is chicken with bread."

Lesson 2: Asking for Directions in Everyday English

Key Vocabulary & Phrases for Daily English Speaking Practice

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
Where is...?	Ask about location	“Where is the bank?”
How do I get to...?	Ask for directions	“How do I get to the supermarket?”
Turn left/right	Directional instruction	“Turn left at the traffic light.”

Go straight	Continue forward	“Go straight for two blocks.”
Next to	Beside something	“The restaurant is next to the bookstore.”
Across from	Opposite side	“The park is across from the school.”
Behind / In front of	Relative position	“The pharmacy is behind the hospital.”
On the corner	At the street intersection	“The bank is on the corner.”
Traffic light	Road signal	“Turn right at the traffic light.”
Block	Section of street	“Walk two blocks and turn left.”

Sample Conversation

- A: Excuse me, where is the nearest supermarket?
 B: It's on Main Street, next to the bank.
 A: How do I get there?
 B: Go straight for two blocks, then turn right.
 A: Thank you!
 B: You're welcome!

Practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with your own answers:

- Excuse me, where is the _____?
- How do I get to the _____?
- It's _____ the _____.

☞ Practice giving directions to places you know—your school, a shop, or your home.

Quick Tips

- Use polite phrases like “Excuse me” and “Thank you.”
- Listen for key words like “left,” “right,” “next to,” and “straight.”
- Practice with a friend or record yourself giving directions.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1: How do I politely ask for directions in English?

A1: Start with “Excuse me” and then ask “Where is the ___?”

Q2: What phrase should I use to ask how to reach a place?

A2: Say “How do I get to ___?” For example: “How do I get to the supermarket?”

Q3: How do I understand location words like “next to” or “across from”?

A3: “Next to” means beside something, and “across from” means on the opposite side.

How to Ask for Directions in English in 3 Steps

1. Begin politely: say “Excuse me.”
2. Ask clearly: “Where is the ___?” or “How do I get to ___?”
3. Listen for key words: “Turn left,” “Go straight,” “Next to.”

Lesson 3: Talking About the Weather in Everyday English

Key Vocabulary & Phrases

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
Sunny	Bright with sunshine	“It’s sunny today.”
Cloudy	Covered with clouds	“It looks cloudy this morning.”
Rainy	Raining	“It’s rainy and wet outside.”
Windy	Lots of wind	“It’s very windy—hold onto your hat!”
Hot	High temperature	“It’s hot in the afternoon.”
Cold	Low temperature	“It’s cold in the morning.”
Warm	Pleasant temperature	“It’s warm and nice today.”
Snowy	Snow is falling	“It’s snowy in winter.”
Stormy	Thunder and lightning	“It’s stormy—stay indoors!”

Sample Conversation

- A: What’s the weather like today?
B: It’s sunny and warm—perfect for a walk.
A: Great! I’ll bring my sunglasses.
B: Good idea. Don’t forget sunscreen!

Practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with your own answers:

- Today is _____ and _____.

- It's _____, I will not go out _____.
- What's the weather like in _____ (your city)?

Quick Tips

- Use weather talk to start friendly conversations.
- Combine weather words with activities: "It's sunny, let's go for a walk."
- Talking about weather is a great way to build vocabulary.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1: How do I ask about today's weather in English?

A1: Say "What's the weather like today?"

Q2: What words can I use to describe sunny or rainy days?

A2: Use "It's sunny" or "It's rainy." For example: "It's sunny today."

Q3: How do I combine weather with activities?

A3: Say "It's ___, let's ___." For example: "It's warm, let's go for a walk."

How to Describe the Weather in English in 3 Steps

1. Ask: "What's the weather like today?"
2. Use simple words: "It's sunny," "It's rainy," "It's cold."
3. Connect with activities: "It's warm, let's go for a walk."

Lesson 4: Daily English Practice for Shopping and Money Vocabulary

Key Vocabulary & Phrases for Daily English Speaking Practice

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
How much is it?	Ask for the price	"How much is this shirt?"
It costs...	Say the price	"It costs ten dollars."
Expensive	Costs a lot	"That bag is expensive!"
Cheap	Costs little	"These shoes are cheap."
Price	The cost of something	"What's the price of this book?"
Sale / Discount	Lower price than usual	"It's on sale—20% off!"
Cash	Physical money	"Can I pay with cash?"

Credit card	Payment card	“Do you accept credit cards?”
Receipt	Proof of purchase	“Here’s your receipt.”
Change	Money returned after payment	“Your change is five dollars.”

Sample Conversation

A: Excuse me, how much is this jacket?
 B: It’s $45.
 A: Is it on sale?
 B: Yes, it’s 20% off today.
 A: Great! I’ll take it. Can I pay by card?
 B: Of course. Here’s your receipt. Have a nice day!

Practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with your own answers:

- How much is the _____?
- It costs _____.
- That’s too _____ for me.
- Can I pay with _____?
- Do I get a _____?

For phone call expressions, visit the article: "English Expressions for Daily life"

Quick Tips for Daily English Speaking Practice

- Always start with “Excuse me” to be polite.
- Practice converting prices into your local currency for better understanding.
- Use shopping vocabulary in real-life practice to build confidence.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1: How do I ask the price of something in English?

A1: Say “How much is it?” For example: “How much is this shirt?”

Q2: What phrase should I use when paying with cash or card?

A2: Ask “Can I pay with cash?” or “Do you accept credit cards?”

Q3: How do I talk about discounts in English?

A3: Use “It’s on sale” or “It’s 20% off.”

How to Shop in English in 3 Steps

1. Ask the price: "How much is it?"
2. Decide and respond: "It costs $10. That's cheap!"
3. Pay politely: "Can I pay with cash?" or "Do you accept credit cards?"

Practice using the phrases you've learned so far.