

Everyday English Conversation: (Part 4)

Welcome to Everyday English Conversations (Part 4) for Beginners: *Shopping, Directions, Weather & Plans! This article gathers 6 lessons that help you handle practical situations in English. Go through them one by one, or jump directly to the topic you need most.

Lesson 1: Shopping and Money Vocabulary

Learn shopping and money vocabulary in English to feel confident when buying things.

Key Vocabulary & Phrases for Daily English Speaking Practice

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
How much is it?	Ask for the price	"How much is this shirt?"
It costs...	Say the price	"It costs ten dollars."
Expensive	Costs a lot	"That bag is expensive!"
Cheap	Costs little	"These shoes are cheap."
Price	The cost of something	"What's the price of this book?"
Sale / Discount	Lower price than usual	"It's on sale—20% off!"
Cash	Physical money	"Can I pay with cash?"
Credit card	Payment card	"Do you accept credit cards?"
Receipt	Proof of purchase	"Here's your receipt."
Change	Money returned after payment	"Your change is five dollars."

These phrases help you practice English vocabulary for conversation at shops and markets.

Sample Conversation

A: Excuse me, how much is this jacket?

B: It's $45.

A: Is it on sale?

B: Yes, it's 20% off today.

A: Great! I'll take it. Can I pay by card?

B: Of course. Here's your receipt. Have a nice day!

English Conversation Practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with your own answers:

- How much is the _____?
- It costs _____.
- That's too _____ for me.
- Can I pay with _____?
- Do I get a _____?

Quick Tips for Practicing Casual or Formal English Conversation

- Always start with "Excuse me" to be polite.
- Practice converting prices into your local currency for better understanding.
- Use shopping vocabulary in real-life practice to build confidence.

FAQs

1. How do I ask the price of something in English? / Say "How much is it?" For example: "How much is this shirt?"

2. What phrase should I use when paying with cash or card? / Ask "Can I pay with cash?" or "Do you accept credit cards?"

3. How do I talk about discounts in English? / Use "It's on sale" or "It's 20% off."

How to Shop in English in 3 Steps

1. Ask the price: "How much is it?"
2. Decide and respond: "It costs $10. That's cheap!"
3. Pay politely: "Can I pay with cash?" or "Do you accept credit cards?"

Lesson 2: Everyday English Conversations (Part 4) -Asking & Giving Directions in Town

Learn how to ask for directions, understand location phrases, and guide someone using clear, simple English vocabulary for transportation.

Directions Vocabulary

Phrase	Use	Example Sentence
Where is the...?	Ask for location	Where is the nearest bank?

How do I get to...? Ask for directions How do I get to the train station?

Go straight / Turn left/right Give directions Go straight and turn left at the corner.

It's on the left/right Describe location The pharmacy is on the right.

Next to / Across from Relative position The restaurant is next to the bookstore.

At the corner / Intersection Specific location It's at the corner of Main Street.

Traffic light / Roundabout Landmarks Turn right at the traffic light.

Block / Street / Avenue Units of distance Walk two blocks and turn left.

Sample Conversation to Practice English vocabulary for beginners

A: Where is the train station?
 B: It's next to the supermarket.
 A: How do I get there?
 B: Go straight and turn right at the traffic light.

English Vocabulary for Beginners

- Where is the _____?
- Go straight and turn _____.
- It's across from the _____.
- Walk _____ blocks and you'll see it.
- The _____ is at the corner of _____ Street.

Tips for Beginner English Vocabulary

- Keep sentences short and simple.
- Practice with real places in your town or neighborhood.
- Use gestures or point if speaking in person — it helps!

Frequently Asked Question

1. What are common phrases for asking directions? / “Where is the...?” and “How do I get to...?” are the most common.

1. How to Ask for Directions Politely

- Start with “Excuse me...”
- Ask “Where is the [place]?”
- Thank the person.

Lesson 3. English Conversation Practice: Directions Inside Buildings

Learn how to ask and give directions indoors using English phrases for giving directions. Use the phrases in casual or formal English conversations.

Key Vocabulary & Phrases

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
Upstairs	On a higher floor	The bathroom is upstairs.
Downstairs	On a lower floor	The kitchen is downstairs.
Left	Direction	Turn left at the corridor.
Right	Direction	The office is on the right.
Corridor	Passage inside a building	Walk down the corridor.
Room	Space in a building	The meeting room is next door.
Office	Workplace room	My office is upstairs.
Bathroom	Washroom	The bathroom is on the left.
Kitchen	Cooking area	The kitchen is downstairs.
Door	Entrance/exit	Close the door, please.

Sample Conversation

A: Where is the kitchen?

B: It's downstairs, next to the living room.

A: And the bathroom?

B: It's upstairs, on the left.

English Conversation Practice Exercise

- The _____ is upstairs.
- Turn _____ at the corridor.
- The _____ is next to the _____.

Tips

- Use short, clear sentences.
- Practice with your own house or school building.

FAQs

1. What phrases help with indoor directions? / “Upstairs,” “Downstairs,” “Turn left/right,” “Corridor,” “Room.”

2. How do I ask for a room location? / Say “Where is the [room]?” politely.

3. Why practice indoor directions? / It helps in schools, offices, and hotels.

How to Ask for Directions Indoors, Give Directions Indoors and Practice Indoors Vocabulary

1. To ask for directions indoors

- Start with “Excuse me...”
- Ask “Where is the [place]?”
- Listen carefully.

2. To give directions indoors

- Use “It’s upstairs/downstairs.”
- Add corridor or room details.
- Keep it short.

3. To practice indoor vocabulary

- Use your house or school.
- Write sentences.
- Role-play with friends.

Lesson 4: Weather in Everyday English

Weather is a great topic for everyday English conversation. This lesson under everyday English conversations part 4 includes common weather vocabulary.

Key Vocabulary & Phrases

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example Sentence
Sunny	Bright with sunshine	“It’s sunny today.”

Cloudy	Covered with clouds	“It looks cloudy this morning.”
Rainy	Raining	“It’s rainy and wet outside.”
Windy	Lots of wind	“It’s very windy—hold onto your hat!”
Hot	High temperature	“It’s hot in the afternoon.”
Cold	Low temperature	“It’s cold in the morning.”
Warm	Pleasant temperature	“It’s warm and nice today.”
Snowy	Snow is falling	“It’s snowy in winter.”
Stormy	Thunder and lightning	“It’s stormy—stay indoors!”

Use these weather phrases in English as a friendly way to start conversations.

Sample Conversation

- A: What’s the weather like today?
 B: It’s sunny and warm—perfect for a walk.
 A: Great! I’ll bring my sunglasses.
 B: Good idea. Don’t forget sunscreen!

English Conversation Practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with your own answers:

- Today is _____ and _____.
- It’s _____, I will not go out _____.
- What’s the weather like in _____ (your city)?

English Conversation Practice: Quick Tips

- Use weather talk to start friendly conversations.
- Combine weather words with activities: “It’s sunny, let’s go for a walk.”
- Talking about weather is a great way to build vocabulary.

FAQs

1. How do I ask about today’s weather in English? / Say “What’s the weather like today?”

2. What words can I use to describe sunny or rainy days? / Use “It’s sunny” or “It’s rainy.”
 For example: “It’s sunny today.”

3. How do I combine weather with activities? / Say “It’s ____, let’s ____.” For example: “It’s warm, let’s go for a walk.”

How to Describe the Weather in English in 3 Steps

1. Ask: “What’s the weather like today?”
2. Use simple words: “It’s sunny”, “It’s rainy”, “It’s cold.”
3. Connect with activities: “It’s warm, let’s go for a walk.”

Conclusion:

Finished with Everyday English Conversations Part 4? Head to (Part 5) to master vocabulary for essential services: At doctor's office, hospital rec